As an Executive Producer and Integrated Producer, I take great satisfaction in guiding projects from creative development through production, post, and final delivery. Working closely with directors and clients on conceiving and resourceful, nimble production plans, I bring to bear my extensive experience and global network of production partners to develop and present multiple varied options and creative solutions.

Expertise in Live-Action Integrated Production (big and small budgets), Bidding and overseeing treatments and Pitches, Post Production, VFX, Animation, AR/VR, Experiential, Photography, Public Installations, and Live-Streamed Events.

Project experience in North and South America, Europe (East and West), Japan, India, New Zealand, and South Africa.

Executive Producer

1stAveMachine

October 2016 - February 2022

As EP of Production and Post at 1stAveMachine and its sister creative agency, SpecialGuest, worked with their global roster of directors and strong resources in Creative Development, Live Action, Post-production, VFX, and Animation. There I played a key role in bringing to life many unusual and complex projects, working as strategist, ideator, problem-solver, and passionate motivator. I am known for bringing a strong sense of leadership, while always being open to all points of view.
